COMMITTEE STATEMENT AND VIEWS

PURPOSE AND SUMMARY

H.R. 5384, the Federal Register Printing Savings Act of 2016, would prohibit subscriptions to the Federal Register by Members of Congress and offices of the federal government without request. Additionally, the bill would limit the length of subscriptions to no longer than one year.

BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR LEGISLATION

The Federal Register is described by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) as the “daily newspaper of the Federal government” and contains proposed rules and public notices, as well as regulations, Executive Orders, and presidential documents.¹ The Federal Register is prepared by NARA and published daily in print and online by the Government Publishing Office (GPO).

Since it was first published in 1936, the Federal Register has been a vital record of federal government actions and requests for comment for both agencies and the American public. While early editions of the Federal Register were fairly short, the length of the Federal Register has grown significantly over time. The first issue of the Federal Register from March 12, 1936 was just 16 pages and the annual subscription cost was $10², or $174 adjusting for inflation.³ Today, an annual subscription costs $929⁴ and as of November 21, 2016, the 2016 edition of Federal Register is more than 83,000 pages in length, with individual issues frequently consisting of 500 or more pages.⁵

The Federal Register has also been available online since June 8, 1994.⁶ Since that time, the digital version of the Federal Register has been repeatedly enhanced to provide better navigational aids and to include links to related contents.⁷ As a result of these enhancements, the digital version can now provide substantially greater utility to users both in and outside of government.

Unfortunately, despite the quality of the digital Federal Register, Members of Congress and offices throughout all branches of the federal government receive daily printed copies of the Federal Register, often without request. As a result, it is not uncommon for hundreds, if not thousands of copies of the Federal Register to be thrown away each day.

H.R. 5384 will prevent needless waste by ensuring only entities wishing to receive the print edition of the Federal Register actually receive it. Under the legislation, GPO would be prohibited from distributing printed copies of the Federal Register to offices of the federal government and Members of Congress unless it is specifically requested, either as a single issue or as a subscription. Moreover, subscriptions would be limited to no more than one year to ensure offices annually consider whether a paper version is necessary.

DUPLICATION OF FEDERAL PROGRAMS

No provision of this bill establishes or reauthorizes a program of the Federal Government known to be duplicative of another Federal program, a program that was included in any report from the Government Accountability Office to Congress pursuant to section 21 of Public Law 111–139, or a program related to a program identified in the most recent Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance.

NOVEMBER 29, 2016.

Hon. JASON CHAFFETZ,
Chairman, Committee on Oversight and Government Reform, House of Representatives, Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. CHAIRMAN: The Congressional Budget Office has prepared the enclosed cost estimate for H.R. 5384, the Federal Register Printing Savings Act of 2016.

If you wish further details on this estimate, we will be pleased to provide them. The CBO staff contact is Matthew Pickford.

Sincerely,

KEITH HALL.

Enclosure.

H.R. 5384—Federal Register Printing Savings Act of 2016

H.R. 5384 would amend federal law to prohibit the Government Printing Office (GPO) from furnishing a printed copy of the Federal Register without charge to a Member of Congress or any employee of the U.S. government unless specifically requested. The Federal Register compiles and organizes thousands of rules, regulations, executive orders, presidential documents, and notices generated by federal departments and agencies.

Using information from the National Archives and Records Administration and GPO, CBO expects that implementing the bill would end the distribution of about 1,000 copies of the Federal Register that are distributed daily for free. The average Federal Register has 300 pages and costs $4.50 to produce and distribute. CBO estimates that eliminating those free copies of the Federal Register would reduce spending that is subject to appropriation by $1 million annually. Enacting the bill would not affect direct spending or revenues; therefore, pay-as-you-go procedures do not apply.

CBO estimates that enacting H.R. 5384 would not increase direct spending or on-budget deficits in any of the four consecutive 10-year periods beginning in 2027.

H.R. 5384 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would impose no costs on state, local, or tribal governments.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Matthew Pickford. The estimate was approved by H. Samuel Papenfuss, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.

CHANGES IN EXISTING LAW MADE BY THE BILL, AS REPORTED

In compliance with clause 3(e) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, changes in existing law made by the bill, as reported, are shown as follows (existing law proposed to be omitted is enclosed in black brackets, new matter is printed in italic, and existing law in which no change is proposed is shown in roman):
